

Lifebridge Christian Church

Senior Minister

Lifebridge Christian Church in Decatur, AL seeks a full-time senior minister. Desired applicant has 5-10 years experience serving in the Independent Christian Church and a proven track record of ministry growth. Duties will include ministerial responsibilities such as preaching, teaching, leading and vision casting, administrative responsibilities such as staff supervision and volunteer training and other responsibilities such as church camp involvement. Salary, vacation and benefits are negotiable.

Lifebridge Christian Church was founded in 1972, and historically has been a long-term employer of ministers. The city of Decatur is located in North Alabama, approximately 20 miles from Huntsville, which is now the largest and most rapidly growing city in the state of Alabama. Poised for growth along the banks of the Tennessee River, Decatur offers a mix of outdoor recreation, historical attractions and a growing arts & culture scene. It is often considered an affordable housing option to nearby Huntsville and Madison.

A minimum of three personal and three professional references will be required when submitting a resume. Interested applicants may send resumes with cover letters and references to: jessica@lifebridgechristian.org.
